The main problem Mainstay had encountered with previous cleaning contractors was a lack of consistency in cleaning standards across different sites. Once the contract was in place, standards slipped and the reliability of cleaners turning up on site became an issue.

With Lawrence Cleaning the scheduled tasks are done on a regular basis. Using good quality products and a specific attention to detail, standards stay constant, creating the high standard of cleanliness expected by both staff and customers. Open, approachable and accessible at all times, their regular contact ensures a fast response to any issue that may arise.

“Good communication between Mainstay, Lawrence Cleaning and our tenants on site encourages a good working relationship through this positive interaction.”

“an established point of contact is vitally important, and we can always depend on Lawrence Cleaning for a speedy response to our enquiry.”
